

Choose Your Own Advocacy Adventure

This summer, senators and representatives will spend more time in their home states and districts, meeting with constituents and holding town halls. NARFE members must not let this opportunity to interact with their legislators pass them by. August is "NARFE Grassroots Advocacy Month," but you may not know where or how to get started. Work with fellow NARFE members, and use the flowchart below to choose your own advocacy adventure. Complete a new chart for each of your legislators.

Start here:

