

Labor Day: Rally at SF Federal Building and Protest in Fremont

On Monday, September 1, besides the 17X17K demonstration on El Camino from Santa Clara to San Mateo which I told you about in my last email, there will be a:

Labor Day Rally in support of Federal Employees from 9:30-11:30am at the Philip Burton Federal Building on Golden Gate Ave in San Francisco, sponsored by NARFE along with three Federal Employee Unions, and a

Workers over Billionaires Protest from 11am-1pm in Fremont at the corner of Walnut and Paseo Padre.

Get your signs ready and plan to show up somewhere in support of Feds everywhere. If you ride BART to San Francisco from the East Bay, the 8:29am train from Fremont arrives at Civic Center at 9:19am. That train runs every 20 minutes. Easy-peasy, but have to get up early lol.

See attached flyers for details.

WORKERS OVER BILLIONAIRES

PROTEST

We will stand in solidarity with all communities under attack and demand a nation that works for everyone.

Monday, September 1, 2025

11:00 a.m to 1:00 p.m.

Walnut Ave. & Paseo Padre, Fremont

- Billionaires are waging war on working people with help from the administration.
- Congress passed a bill taking money from working families to give to billionaires.
- We're fighting for public schools over private profits, healthcare over hedge funds, shared prosperity over corporate politics.
- We're standing up for families and the rights and freedoms that ensure equal opportunities and a better life for all.
- Working people built this nation and we won't back down.

Bring signs, water, sunscreen, hats, family, friends & neighbors!

☮ We are committed to nonviolent action. We expect all participants to seek to de-escalate any potential confrontation with those who disagree with our values. Only non-violent signs and behavior are allowed. We will treat one another with respect.
