

Choose Your Own Advocacy Adventure

This summer, senators and representatives will spend more time in their home states and districts, meeting with constituents and campaigning for office. NARFE members must not let this opportunity to interact with their legislators and candidates pass them by. August is "NARFE Grass-Roots Advocacy Month," but you may not know where or how to get started. Use the flowchart below to choose your own advocacy adventure. Complete a new chart for each representative, senator and candidate for those offices.
