

NARFE hears AACOG details

For the Southside Reporter

Susan Blevins, care coordination specialist with Alamo Area Council of Governments, was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the NARFE Chapter 1594.

Blevins told the group of active and retired federal employees about the many kinds of help available in Bexar and surrounding counties. Help is also available for military veterans. AACOG is funded by government grants.

Also at the meeting held April 19 at Brookhill Baptist Church, NARFE-PAC Fund Chair David Cuellar reported that members donated $300 at the March 15 meeting to the fund. A free membership to NARFE Chapter 1594 for one year was given to Carmen Dreumont.

Courtesy photo

Elevia Gant presented a certificate of appreciation to NARFE guest speaker Susan Blevins, a care coordination specialist with AACOG.

mont.

Service Officer Sandy Vogel will be the chapter's voting representative at NARFE's 59th Texas State Federation of Chapters Convention in Austin May 3-6. Chapter members voted to approve the proposed four resolutions. Chapter 1594 will cast votes for Dr. John Creswell of New Braunfels for president of the Texas Federation of Chapters, and Dale St. Laurent of Rowlett for executive vice president.

The chapter's May 19 meeting will be at Brookhill Baptist Church, 631 Utopia Ave., from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. The June luncheon/meeting is scheduled for June 21 at the Pecan Grill Restaurant, 3857 E. Southcross Blvd. For more information, call Joyce Zerr at 210-523-0770. Current federal employees or federal retirees are welcome at meetings.